feel free to our article, where we've written step by step instructions to help you walk through this July 2026 - The enacted "Working Families Tax Relief Act of 2025" (WFTRA) provides for significant changes to the tax treatment of employer-provided health insurance. This includes the elimination of the current 7.5% limit on the cost of self-insured plans, which will now be capped at 10%. Additionally, the new law allows employers to deduct up to $1 million per year for the cost of providing health insurance to their employees, regardless of whether the plan is self-insured or purchased from a third party. These changes are effective for taxable years beginning after 2025. For more information on the WFTRA and its impact on your business, please contact us today.
